

Prayers of the People - Last Epiphany-C

Let us offer our prayers to the Holy One whose glory we see in the face of Jesus, saying:
show us your glory and hear us.

For the Church, especially Michael our Presiding Bishop and Kevin our bishop, that tested by suffering and burdened by sin, God's people everywhere may see in the transfiguration the pledge of Easter. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For this Parish Family, that we may look forward to the Lenten journey with new zeal for living according to the example of Jesus. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For all nations and people torn by strife, that they may come forth from the shadows of terror to enjoy a springtime of peace. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For an ever deepening conversion of heart, that as we discover our misdirection and allow the Spirit to lead us along new paths, we may find greater faith, stronger hope, and deeper love. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For all those who fear death, failure or an unknown future, and for the sick and the suffering, remembering especially..... that they may find courage and healing in the face of Christ. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For those who have died, remembering especially....., that they may enjoy the glory of all whose citizenship is in heaven. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with Mary the God-bearer, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord our God.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, God of eternal light. Hear the prayers we offer for all your people and let your glory shine upon us, that our lives may proclaim your goodness and our works give you honor; through Jesus Christ our Savior. AMEN.
